Greater than 8,500 lbs. and Less than or Equal to 10,000 lbs.****

This list is provided as an example and does not represent all Category 3 Trucks eligible for the CARS program. Furthermore, some of the vehicles on this list may be available in configurations that are rated at 8,500 lbs. (GVWR) or less or rated at greater than 10,000 lbs. GVWR. For such vehicles, the GVWR on the sticker inside the driver's side door determines the vehicle category rather than inclusion or exclusion from this list. Vehicles with a GVWR greater than 10,000 lbs. are not eligible for the CARS program. *This list includes vehicles that are over 6,000 lbs. EPA curb weight but are under 8,500 lbs. (GVWR); these vehicles are treated as category 3 for the CARS program.

This list is provided as an example and does not represent all Category 3 Trucks eligible for the CARS program. Furthermore, some of the vehicles on this list may be available in configurations that are rated at 8,500 lbs. (GVWR) or less or rated at greater than 10,000 lbs. GVWR. For such vehicles, the GVWR on the sticker inside the driver's side door determines the vehicle category rather than inclusion or exclusion from this list. Vehicles with a GVWR greater than 10,000 lbs. are not eligible for the CARS program.

This list is provided as an example and does not represent all Category 3 Trucks eligible for the CARS program. Furthermore, some of the vehicles on this list may be available in configurations that are rated at 8,500 lbs. (GVWR) or less or rated at greater than 10,000 lbs. GVWR. For such vehicles, the GVWR on the sticker inside the driver's side door determines the vehicle category rather than inclusion or exclusion from this list. Vehicles with a GVWR greater than 10,000 lbs. are not eligible for the CARS program.

This list is provided as an example and does not represent all Category 3 Trucks eligible for the CARS program. Furthermore, some of the vehicles on this list may be available in configurations that are rated at 8,500 lbs. (GVWR) or less or rated at greater than 10,000 lbs. GVWR. For such vehicles, the GVWR on the sticker inside the driver's side door determines the vehicle category rather than inclusion or exclusion from this list. Vehicles with a GVWR greater than 10,000 lbs. are not eligible for the CARS program.

*This list includes vehicles that are over 6,000 lbs. EPA curb weight but are under 8,500 lbs. (GVWR); these vehicles are treated as category 3 for the CARS program.

Examples of 1984-2010 Model Year Vehicles with Gross Vehicle Weight Rating (GVWR)
Greater than 8,500 lbs. and Less than or Equal to 10,000 lbs.****

This list is provided as an example and does not represent all Category 3 Trucks eligible for the CARS program. Furthermore, some of the vehicles on this list may be available in configurations that are rated at 8,500 lbs. (GVWR) or less or rated at greater than 10,000 lbs. GVWR. For such vehicles, the GVWR on the sticker inside the driver's side door determines the vehicle category rather than inclusion or exclusion from this list. Vehicles with a GVWR greater than 10,000 lbs. are not eligible for the CARS program.

This list is provided as an example and does not represent all Category 3 Trucks eligible for the CARS program. Furthermore, some of the vehicles on this list may be available in configurations that are rated at 8,500 lbs. (GVWR) or less or rated at greater than 10,000 lbs. GVWR. For such vehicles, the GVWR on the sticker inside the driver's side door determines the vehicle category rather than inclusion or exclusion from this list. Vehicles with a GVWR greater than 10,000 lbs. are not eligible for the CARS program.

Greater than 8,500 lbs. and Less than or Equal to 10,000 lbs.****

This list is provided as an example and does not represent all Category 3 Trucks eligible for the CARS program. Furthermore, some of the vehicles on this list may be available in configurations that are rated at 8,500 lbs. (GVWR) or less or rated at greater than 10,000 lbs. GVWR. For such vehicles, the GVWR on the sticker inside the driver's side door determines the vehicle category rather than inclusion or exclusion from this list. Vehicles with a GVWR greater than 10,000 lbs. are not eligible for the CARS program.
